

What can you do?

The Arc of Putnam County has served since 1974 to enrich our community by helping those with developmental disabilities and their families. This is a significant outreach program that helps these individuals learn and grow in so many aspects of life.

About the Beck 5K Walk/Run

Beck Automotive Group started a serious health initiative for their employees in late 2014 to help encourage their employees to get fit and add life to their years, not just years to their lives. In an effort to help promote this wellness, and to help the community, this 5K was developed to help meet both goals.
